THE CITY'S MONEY.

Statements for July and August Made by the Treasurer.

City Treasurer Thomas Dealey has filed with auditor Anderson his report for the months of July and August, bearing upon street assessments, warrants, and bonds.

In the matter of street assessments Treasurer Dealey has paid out the sum of $15,862.31, of which $905.74 was interest; and in the same period he has disbursed $21,988.18, as principal and interest on city warrants and on bond accounts.

There is available for the redemption of municipal warrants, which have been called but not yet presented a sum approximating $20,000.

The report shows a healthy financial condition and indicates a careful oversight of the finances by the powers that be.

THE GENTLE TOURIST.

The city by the sea has swarmed with the genus tourist for the past four days. He, (and she) has been omnipresent, and each and every one in charge of one or more youngsters and the inevitable "grip." They all look happy and seem to enjoy all Astoria has to show them, they ask intelligent questions, make sharp criticisms, crack jokes and swap information readily, like the well posted travelled people they are. There is mighty little of the "swell" about them, they appear to be just good, plain, wholesome, home folks, out for a holiday with money enough to pay their way, and though most of them have come thousands of miles to see Astoria and her kindred resorts, there is nothing about them to distinguish them from the ordinary native, except that insistent rattle. This alone marks them for the stranger, and strangers though they be, they are goodly honest Americans, and as such, Astoria welcomes them within and without her gates.

JELDNESS-SMITH.

Mr. Cheisley D. Smith and Miss Elfreida Jeldness both of this city, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, at 6 o'clock yesterday evening. The happy young people departed immediately for California where they will remain for the next four months.

TO FERDALE.

The Tallant-Grant Packing company's cold storage plant at Ell River, California will be in the hands of E. W. Tallant, in the coming season. Mr. Tallant, accompanied by S. Jarvi, Jos. Phillips, R. Trullinger, Burt Hun and P. Grady, left on the Roanoke for Ferndale, California, yesterday.

LOCALS ARE DEFEATED.

The concluding game of baseball for the championship of the Lower Columbia River league was played yesterday at Cathlamet between the West Astoria and Cathlamet nines.

The local team was evidently not "in it" as they were defeated by a score of 6 to 1.

A large crowd of Astorians went over with the boys and did all in their power to induce the bird of victory to perch upon the local standard but their efforts were of no avail.

SUNDAY SEA NOTES

River and Bay and the Craft that ply Thereon.

GASOLINE, STEAM, AND CANVAS

Manoranda of the Coming and Going of Steamers, Tugs and Sallers—Piers and Pier Men Kept Busy Despite the Day of Rest.

The tug Vanguard joined the Callender fleet at the company's pier after lightening 8,000 bundles of shingles to the Roanoke and Newport. The same fleet of tugs was swelled yesterday afternoon by the arrival from Coos Bay of the tug Cruiser which came in under tow of the Columbia. After docking her tow the Columbia left down and out for her home port. Capt Wm. McKee in command.

The following appeared in the columns of the Portland Journal of Saturday last: "Sheriff Word this afternoon saved an attachment on Captain "Jack" Reed of the gasoline launch Fox for $104 in favor of Foard & Stokes of Astoria. The Fox collided with a small boat and caused the drowning of a girl and boy some weeks ago."

The three masted schooner Sequoia loaded to the scuppers with lumber, for San Pedro left out under tow of the Tatoosh at 6:30 p. m. yesterday evening.

The steamer Roanoke, for San Francisco and San Pedro came down from Portland yesterday morning and docked at the Callender piers where she took on 4,000 bundles of shingles before leaving out at 1 p. m.

The steamer Newport was at the Callender dock at 5 a. m. yesterday and after loading shingles all day, got away for San Francisco, direct in the afternoon.

The Tatoosh passed down to the bar with a three masted schooner at noon, but no source of information would yield up the schooner's name.

The fine tug Melville was tied up at her owners dock yester, the Callender her owners dock yesterday, the Callender company.

The U. S. tug Arago, Captain Tyler, left out yesterday afternoon for Coos Bay where she will attend to some dredging work.

The towing steamer W. F. Henderson arrived down yesterday afternoon with the bark Isaac Reed, lumber laden for San Francisco.

The steamer Acme arrived down early yesterday morning and crossed out at 7:30 o'clock, bound for San Francisco.

The steamer Harvest Queen came down early yesterday morning and docked at the O. R. & N. piers.

THE TELEGRAPH'S NEW RATE.

The swift steamer Telegraph leaves Callender dock, Astoria, daily, for Portland, except Friday, at 2 o'clock p. m., arriving in Portland at 8:30 p. m. A round trip fare of $2.25 has been established for the next 60 days, going into effect today. No better way to observe the beauties of the Columbia river.
